

Believe in Angels

I didn't believe in angels until I met you
As I looked at your face I knew what they say is true

There are angels out there in this world
Who are sent from heaven above
One by the name of Dylan James Manning is what comes to mind

You make me smile
You make me laugh
Especially in those cute photographs

You bring so many smiles
Unfortunately there are the tears
Don't worry Dylan we know you have to fight
We are all here

We fight for you in heart and spirit
Though you may not see how much we love you
Trust me we'd do anything for you

You have taught me so much
You have shown me what strong really is

When I look at you I smile
Especially when I look into those beautiful blue eyes
To see that you are in pain makes me sad

Then when I see what a strong little boy you truly are
The way you bring warmth to all of our hearts
My smile heats up again

You are so cute one cannot resist but stare
Just Believe in Angels
I know I do

Dylan James Manning you are my angel and will be forever
